

BP-2000 Blood Pressure Analysis System

The world's leading non-invasive blood pressure analyzer for mice and rats: a state-of-the-art, expandable instrument based on transmission photoplethysmography, highly accurate and reliable for measurements on animals ranging from small mice to extremely large rats. Comes with a powerful, yet intuitive, dedicated software to review and verify your data, and export your results.

Product codes:

Reference: BP-2000

Product description:

Product features:

Available models